IPRA ARCHIVE – First scan of 1980-1989 agendas and meetings

YEAR	CITY	COMMENTS
1980	Athens (Hellenic PR Association)	“Gold Efthynos of Public Relations” awarded to M. Lucien Matrat, former president of CERP and author of the Code of Athens, “on the occasion of the 15 th anniversary of its approval” (Athens, 1965) (Working programme, p.1)
1980	Paris (Board)	Proposals for International Foundation for Public Relations Research and Education (Agenda, p.2) and new membership category for PR associations and federations (p.2)
1980	Hong Kong (Council)	Proposal for IPRA Advisory Council of Educators (Minutes, p.2). Educators meeting held at Chinese University. Anne van der Meiden (Utrecht) and Don Wright (University of Georgia) were invited guests. Roger Hayes of IPR was invited to join the group in his role as chair of its Education Committee. Goran Sjoberg was chair of Education & Research Committee. IPR had an annual surplus of £9,650 which was added to reserves to reach £30,000. Admin costs to rise with set-up of continuing office. Foundation proposal (see above) was accepted in principle. Would be a stand-alone organisation.
1981	Quebec (Board)	Gold Paper on PR education agreed in outline. Sjoberg, Hayes, van der Meiden and Wright to finalise it for approval at Bombay Congress. (Minutes, p.3). IPRA Advisory Committee of Educators formed of a “group of eminent scholars in the field of public relations education.” (p.6) Membership in 1981 was 674 from 59 countries which has risen “by nearly 100% in 4 years”. (p.6) NOTE: IPRA has moved to permanent secretarial offices in London. Costs were to rise by 50 per cent, postal costs up and investment income going down. (p.8) IPRA reviews was selling only 100 copies and making a loss (p.9) but other members being told it had a target of 1000 copies sold per issue (Council Minutes, p.3)
1981	Madrid (Council) Photo of meeting in file	President’s Award to Sean McBride “whose whole life has been dedicated to the pursuit of liberty, freedom of communication and the human rights of the individual, p.1) Education Foundation “now to be established” and look for cooperation with the US Foundation for Public Relations Research and Education (p.1). Guidance six papers on PR topics proposed to foster IPRA’s third original objective “to foster the highest standards of public relations competence and practice ...”. The President, Jacques Coup de Frejac, said that IPRA was not a “club” but “an association of individual practitioners working to raise standards in international public relations.” (pp.4-5) More on Gold Paper 4, p.9 IPRA Senior Public Relations course ran in the UK with 31 delegates, 29 from Nigeria. Made surplus of £3,800.

1982	Bombay (Presidents' meeting)	7 th meeting of presidents of regional and national PR associations: 22 attended, with reluctance expressed over formation of an international body for regional and national PR associations and of IPRA taking the lead on this. Most happy with informal linkages bilaterally and through IPRA's good offices. USA view was that "it was premature to think of a statutory world body" (p.2); Britain said there "was no perceived need for such a body" (p.1). Code of Athens : Call for all national bodies to adopt the Code of Athens as their own code of Ethics. "many have done so already" (p.4). Nigeria had adopted its own Code, as had the federation of African Public Relations Associations. CERP members had adopted it and the USA "will seriously consider adoption."
1982	Bombay (Board and Council)	Council - UN relations: seeking approved status with UNESCO, p.6. Assembly – More discussion on World Federation, driven by UNESCO's desire to work with one PR body.
